1. Introduction

We hope that issues can be addressed by talking to the relevant staff. Open communication and regular engagement between the College, parents/carers and other stakeholders is vital to nurturing positive relationships within the whole College community.

1.1 COLLEGE INFORMATION

At Integrated College Dungannon, we take complaints seriously. We have the best interests of all of our students and their families at the centre of all that we do. We encourage anyone with a concern or worry to speak to us as soon as possible. If issues are dealt with at an early stage, then they are more likely to be resolved, leaving no unnecessary dissatisfaction.

The Board of Governors, together with the Principal, set the direction and tone of the College and are committed to working with parents in the best interests of their children's education. The purpose of this Complaints Procedure is to address complaints raised by parents/guardians which have not been resolved informally.

The procedure covers all matters relating to the actions of staff employed in the College and the application of College procedures, where they affect individual students. However, College staff, and the Board of Governors, recognise the difference between a concern and a complaint. Taking informal concerns seriously at the earliest possible stage will reduce the numbers that develop into formal complaints.

1.2 Informal Stage

Speaking with Teacher – Step 1

In the first instance, a concern/complaint should normally be raised verbally with the teacher concerned, so that s/he may have an opportunity to address the issue(s). Please observe the College's existing protocols for arranging and conducting such meetings and follow the College's policy with respect to access to members of staff – please arrange appointments with staff by contacting the main office.

This approach will not prevent you from choosing to enter the formal process at a later stage, if you believe that to be an appropriate course of action.

Speaking with the Principal – Step 2

If your concern/complaint remains unresolved following Step 1, you should arrange a meeting with the Principal to discuss the issue(s). In some circumstances the Principal may not be able to deal effectively with your complaint immediately, and he may require some time to investigate and respond. If further time is required, you will be informed of the timescale and the likely date by which the Principal will respond.

2. Scope of the Complaints Procedure

A complaint is described as an expression of dissatisfaction with our work.

2.1 Complaints with Established Procedures

Our College Complaints Procedure sets out how any expression of dissatisfaction relating to the College will be managed. By taking complaints seriously at the earliest possible stage, it is hoped that they can be resolved quickly and effectively.

Some examples of complaints dealt with:

- Not following College policy
- Communication delays / lack of communication
- Difficulties in staff / student relationships

This procedure should not be used for complaints with separate established procedures, however if your complaint relates to the College's failure to correctly administer any of these procedures, then you may complain by means of this procedure.

Some examples of statutory procedures and appeal mechanisms, which are not part of the College's complaints procedure, are listed below. The list is not exhaustive. The Principal/ Chair of Governors will advise on the appropriate procedure to use when a complaint is raised.

Exceptions
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Admissions / Expulsions / Exclusion of children from school</li><li>• Statutory assessments of Special Educational Needs (SEN)</li><li>• School Development Proposals</li><li>• Child Protection / Safeguarding</li></ul>

2.2 Anonymous Complaints

The College will not normally investigate anonymous complaints, unless deemed by the Chairperson of the Board of Governors to be of a very serious nature. The decision of dealing with such complaints will be at the discretion of the Chairperson of the Board of Governors.

3. Aims of the Complaints Procedure

There will be occasions when, despite all stages of the complaints procedure having been completed and the complaint has been reviewed by the Ombudsman, the complainant remains dissatisfied. The College must balance the rights of an individual to make a complaint and have it fairly investigated with the rights of staff not to be subjected to unacceptable actions or behaviour.

In the event that such a decision has been taken, the complainant will be advised accordingly.
